The latest war pictures, Theatre, near Eighth Avonus, on Monday at the head of "The "Big Jubileo." had a most varied career before going on the stage. The years of his early youth were times of tolly the his experiences were of the greatest value to him, for they gave him many opportunities to study human mature in the characters one sees about saltons. Much of this chearcterizations. He was always a claver dancer. White made such a big hit at amateur performances that he determined to go on the professional stage. He made an instantaneous success and joined one of the burlesque wheel companies. In a year he had reached stellar ranks. His clever wife, Anna Grant, appears with him in "The Big Jubilee."

DANCING CARNIVAL PATRONS MAY NOW ENJOY FINE DINNERS

On Monday next the management of the dancing carnival at Grand Central Palace will open a thoroughly modern, high class restaurant for the modern, high class restaurant for the accommodation of the patrons of the Palace. A. $10,000 kitchen has been installed and the management promises the best table d'hote dinner for 50 cents that ever has been served in this city.

The installation of the restaurant is been in most ardious undertaking.

The installation of the restaurant has been a most arduous undertaking. Even the plumbing had to be installed and many other changes made. Mr. Grundy, the managing director, said in response to any inquiry as to why he had made this addition without hope of making profit. "The patrons of the dancing carnival wanted it and it is up to me to give them what they want when they want it. That is what I am here for."
